April Mission Trip to Northeastern China

In April, I made a two-week mission trip to Northeastern China, accompanied by a young disciple from Malaysia. I ministered to over 2,700 people at 15 places throughout Heilongjiang, Jilin, Liaoning and Shandong provinces. I was able to minister at different places everyday by traveling with some designated cars at night. We received great hospitality with comfortable overnight arrangements and often had meals at restaurants. In the recent years, there is great improvement in the quality of life in China. We no longer experience so much difficulties and hardship as before. Many house churches in China have been making contact with the oversea churches in the recent years, however some have kept their simplicity and not abandoned their hunger and passion for God. Therefore, we still see the great move of the Holy Spirit during this trip.

On the first day, our domestic flight arrived at a city in Heilongjiang in the evening. A church leader picked us up and drove us to another city. In the next morning, we met in a large tent at a village nearby. When I laid hands on the people after preaching, suddenly they all fell down on the dirt floor and many were in tears. The Spirit of joy came in the afternoon. After I prayed for several rows of people, the wind of the Spirit came and they all fell down at once in great joy. Finally I prayed for the sick. Then two brothers drove us to a city in Jilin. I began to train the coworkers the next morning. When I prayed for them, they all fell down in weeping, especially those young students. After preaching in the evening, people rushed to the front in response. I first prayed for those needy on the platform and they wept strongly. I then stepped down to pray for the sick. The next morning, more coworkers joined us from other places and packed the meeting hall. As I led them in worship, the Holy Spirit started to move. I laid hands on the young people and they all fell down in weeping. After preaching, people all knelt down in tears for repentance. When I prayed for them in groups, they all fell down and rested in the Spirit for a long time. After lunch, I prayed and gave personal prophecies to several leaders. I was invited to minister to more churches in Jilin. In the afternoon, I led all the people in dancing to praise God. After preaching, the Spirit of joy came and young sisters fell down on the platform in great laughter. As I prayed over the people, they all fell down from the front to the back in great joy. After I laid hands on them again, we traveled back to another city in Heilongjiang.

We met inside a factory in the suburbs the next morning. These house church coworkers have been influenced by some oversea speakers and became more conservative. They listened to my preaching attentively but only few were moved to tears. When I laid hands on them, I was hindered by their leaders. In the afternoon, I prayed for the sick but not many were healed. When I prayed after preaching, many were filled with the Holy Spirit. Some fell down but were picked up by the leaders. When I prayed for them to receive the Spirit of joy, again their leaders intervened. We left at once and went to the next city. I began to train the coworkers the next morning. Many sick came and packed the small place in the afternoon. I could only pray for one row at a time. It took a long time but many sick received healing. After preaching, I first prayed for the coworkers and they were in great laughter. A demon-possessed sister received deliverance and later was filled with joy. A polio-stricken sister was able to walk. The next morning, we met at another local house church. After preaching, I prayed for their young people and they fell down in tears. In the afternoon, the elderly sisters were filled with great joy, and then the young people were burnt with the fire of the Spirit. We went to the next city that evening. After preaching to a group of young students, I prayed for them and they were filled with the Holy Spirit. We then were on the night train to a city in Liaoning.

The next evening, we met inside a hotel and it was packed. After I preached with the anointing, people took turns to receive prayers. After a sister received deliverance from demons, we all danced and rejoiced in celebration. The next morning, we went to the next place at a large house in the nearby village and it was again packed. After preaching, I prayed for the people in groups and many fell down in tears. In the afternoon, I prayed for them in groups for receiving the anointing of joy. Then we left for the next city. The next morning, we met inside an apartment with a few coworkers. After preaching, I prayed for them in groups. To my surprise, the Holy Spirit moved so strongly and they wept aloud for a long time. In the afternoon, they were filled with great joy. We then went to the next city and met at a restaurant the next morning. After preaching, I prayed for the people in groups and many fell down in tears. In the afternoon, I prayed for them to receive great joy and healings. In the evening, we went to a house church in a remote village. After preaching, I prayed for all the people and many were in tears. We went back to the city at night.

The next morning, we met inside a hotel and it was packed. After preaching, people all rushed forward to receive prayers. The Holy Spirit moved strongly and people fell down in tears. In the afternoon, I led them in dancing and then laid hands on them to receive the joy. There was great laughter and it lasted a long time. The next morning, we met in a village and it was packed with hundreds of people. I began by leading them to sing high praises. After preaching, it took a long time for me to pray for everyone in turns. In the afternoon, after I led the worship, the presence of God manifested and everyone was quiet. After preaching, I prayed for them to be filled with joy. They all fell down from the front to the back in great laughter. In the next afternoon, we met with some coworkers at a house church. When I prayed for them, many wept and then were filled with joy. We then took a flight to a city in Shandong. The next evening, I preached to the coworkers at the house church and cautioned them to watch out for the prosperity gospel from oversea. Many responded to the alter call in weeping.
