

TABERNACLE OF DAVID MINISTRIES, INTERNATIONAL NEWS

December Mission Trip to Southeastern China

At the end of November, I made a three-week mission trip to Zhejiang, Fujian, Hainan and Jiangsu provinces in Southeastern China. We met in 20 places and ministered to nearly 3,400 people. We stayed only one day at each place, and sometimes held up to 3 meetings per day. Despite the packed itinerary, we were able to make it due to many improvements in China's transportation system in the recent years.

After arrival, I was in total shock by the news of the car accident and the passing of my close friend, Pastor Hu of Hainan House Church. He gave up his medical career for following Jesus into fulltime ministry, enduring the ridicule from his own family and the persecution from the government for years. His love for God and life testimony had impacted many people. During this trip, I also heard there were money scammers and deceivers in China pretend to be representatives of our ministry. These must be some evildoers inside the church.

Our first place was at a church nearby a city in Zhejiang. After preaching, I prayed for the sick and a patient who received liver transplant was able to walk. There were more turnouts in the evening and I laid hands on the packed crowd in groups. The next morning, I preached at a city church and gave an altar call. People cried out in repentance on their knees. In the evening, I preached to young people at a factory. As I laid hands on them, they wept and then were filled with joy. The next day, a brother drove me to the next city and we met at the local church. I laid hands on people and they all fell down quietly for a long time. Many elderly people received physical healings. We went to the next city that night. The next day, we met at the urban area where several churches gathered for combined Sunday service. After preaching on healing, people rushed to the front to receive prayers. A stroke-stricken elderly brother was able to walk. I led them in praising and dancing, and then anointed the coworkers. In the evening, the Holy Spirit moved strongly, many were in holy laughter and the youth were on holy fire. The next day, we met at a city church with many came from nearby places. As we worshiped, the presence of God manifested. I preached under strong anointing and gave an altar call for repentance. As I laid hands on them, they all fell in the Holy Spirit. I also prayed for the sick and anointed all the coworkers. In the evening, I laid hands on people with blessing before departing for the next city.

In the next morning, we met at a church in the countryside with many from nearby areas. After preaching, I prayed first for those who were moved to tears, and then for the rest, as they fell quietly in the presence of God. In the afternoon, they all were filled with great joy. After I prayed for the sick and anointed clothes, a crippled sister was able to walk. Lastly, I anointed all the pastoral staff and then went to the next city. We met in a factory the next day. After preaching, I laid hands on the people who came from the Three-Self churches. We went back to a city at night, and met with coworkers next morning in a nearby city. After preaching, they wept and knelt down in prayers, especially the sisters. When I laid hands on them, many fell down and wept strongly. In the evening, they all danced and praised passionately. As I anointed the young people, they were all filled with great laughter. In the next day, we met with young students of the Bible training school on the mountaintop. After preaching, I prayed for them and they all cried out to God, with many of them who were prodigal sons. Later I gave an altar call for fulltime ministry, many responded. In the evening, they danced with all their might, and then were filled with great joy, also on fire of the Holy Spirit.

The next day, I went to a city in Fujian by the fast train and held meeting at the host family. After I laid hands on children, they rested quietly in the Holy Spirit. Many sick also came for healing. In the evening, we met at an urban church. Only few were filled with the Holy Spirit after receiving prayers. In the next morning Sunday service, I preached and prayed for people. I took a bus to the next city. Several hundreds showed up for the evening meeting from nearby churches. As we worshiped, I felt God's presence. After preaching, I prayed for the sick and a brother who suffered from a car accident was able to walk. After teaching coworkers the next morning, they were filled with the Holy Spirit and fell all over the meeting hall. Later I took a flight to a city in Hainan.

The next day, we met at a farmhouse in the countryside with coworkers from various areas. As we worshiped with singing, the presence of God manifested. After preaching, I laid hands on them and they fell all over the place. I preached words of comfort for them who just lost their beloved pastor. Later I asked for more coworkers to serve the Lord, many came forth in tears. In the afternoon, they were filled with joy in holy laughter. Suddenly I was told the police were here so I left immediately. A local brother led me across a pepper field and then I went to the next city. The next day, we met at the conference room at a hotel with coworkers from nearby areas. After preaching, I prayed for them, they fell all over the place. In the evening, many were filled with holy laughter or danced in spirit. The Holy Spirit moved for a long time.

I took a flight the next morning to a city and met coworkers from the nearby churches. After preaching, people rushed forward to receive prayers, and they all fell in weeping. Later I preached again and then prayed for them, they all fell in great laughter. The Holy Spirit moved mightily. I then took a fast train to a city in Jiangsu. We met at a factory in the countryside the next morning and coworkers were filled with the Holy Spirit in the afternoon. I went to another city that evening and prayed for people right away at the church. The Holy Spirit moved strongly and several new converts screamed and received deliverance. After preaching in the next morning, I led people in repentance, and then received the Holy Spirit with speaking in tongues. I prayed for the children and they fell down quietly for a long time. In the afternoon, I prayed for people in groups and they were filled with great joy. Afterward, I took the bus to the next city. We met in a farmhouse the next morning. People were weeping in the morning and filled with joy in the afternoon. I visited an elderly sister on the way back to the major city. In the next evening, I preached at a house church with mainly housemaids. I prayed for them and they fell down quietly.
