April Mission Trip to Central China

In April, I made a two-week mission trip to Jiangsu, Shandong, Anhui and Henan provinces in central China. Meetings were held in 17 places with over 3,300 people ministered and nearly 50 converts. As usual, I ministered during the day and traveled at night on a daily basis. Most places were in the poor countryside and I had to minister under very dusty environment. It is sad that although the cities have experienced incredible progress, not much has changed in the countryside. Modernization not only impacts the environment, it also changes the demographics in the country villages with mainly elderly people and children left. As I prayed for the sick, many healing miracles happened. God has not forgotten His people.

The first place was at a small town near a city in Jiangsu at a Three-Self Church. In the next morning, I met with several leaders who invited me to their churches. This church is very open to the Holy Spirit and the place was packed. Their praise was very lively and especially a young man who played keyboard skillfully. I then led them in worship and the presence of God manifested. After preaching, I gave an alter call and people crowded the stage to receive prayers. I first laid hands on those who were moved in tears and they went down on the floor. After preaching in the afternoon, I prayed for the sick and several cripples were able to walk. Finally I anointed the coworkers in ministry, and they were filled with the Holy Spirit. Next place was at a city suburb where I met a young disciple who later accompanied me for this trip. The next morning, people were moved to tears as I prayed. I laid hands on them and they fell down on the floor weeping. Later a group of sisters touched me and were filled with the joy of the Lord. Then we leave for a city in Shandong. In the afternoon, I preached at a training center. I laid hands on coworkers and they were filled with the Holy Spirit in great laughter. The next morning, we had a coworker meeting in a nearby city and gathered in a courtyard. After preaching, I laid hands on them in groups and they were filled with great joy. We took a lake tour in the afternoon, and then ministered on a houseboat. After preaching, I prayed for the people and they were filled with the Holy Spirit, jumping up and down. After meeting, we enjoyed a meal on a speedboat. That evening, we stopped by a Three-Self church in a city to pray for their leaders. They first wept and then turned into laughter. As we departed for a city in Anhui, police stopped our car at a checkpoint and finally they let us leave. It took us awhile to find our next place in the countryside late at night.

Many showed up at the Sunday service next morning. Their worship team sang the praise in dancing. After preaching, I gave an alter call and led nearly 50 people to the Lord. I then prayed for the people on the platform and they fell down quietly. Many elderly were healed and several could walk without crutches. After preaching in the afternoon, I anointed coworkers to be filled with joy. A brother with double crutches was healed and jumped up in praising God as he threw his crutches off the platform. We all shouted praises to God. Afterward, we caught the last bus to the next city. After having a dinner with leaders, I prayed for them at the hosting family. The next morning, I taught the Bible at a training school in a village. I prayed for the young students and they went down in tears. In the afternoon, they were filled with great joy. We then again caught the last bus to the next city. The next morning, we met at a village and the place was packed with coworkers. After preaching, many were moved in tears. Some fell down on the floor without being touched and were carried to the platform. I then laid hands on them in groups and they fell down in tears. A sister with cancer was healed and able to get up and walk. After preaching in the afternoon, I led them praising God in dancing. We shouted hallelujah in unison and they all went down at the same time. I laid hands on them in groups and they were filled with great joy. Afterward, we caught the last bus once again and arrived at a city in Henan ahead of schedule. I was amazed at God's arrangement on my travel needs.

That evening we held a meeting at a village and many elderly people came. After preaching, I prayed for them in groups and many fell down in weeping. The next morning, we met at a nearby village and the place was packed. After preaching, I led them in worship and many fell down already. Later it took me a long time to pray for each of them. In the afternoon, they fell down in holy laughter without being touched. A brother with terminal disease was healed and able to get up and walk. Another sister was able to walk without the crutch. The next morning, another group of coworkers showed up and the place was overflowed to the courtyard. I prayed for them in groups and they fell down in tears. In the afternoon, they also fell down in holy laughter without being touched. A dumb sister was healed and able to talk. Later we travelled by car to another city. The next morning, we held a meeting with young people at a village. After preaching, I prayed for them in groups and they went down in tears. In the afternoon, they were filled with great joy. The next morning, we held a meeting with coworkers. After sermon, they were moved in tears. In the afternoon, they were filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke in tongues. Later we went to another city and held the meeting the next morning in the courtyard at a house. I then prayed for people in groups. In the afternoon, we met at another house with people packed all three rooms. After preaching I prayed for them in turns. A group of college students were filled with great joy. Later we went to another city and had a coworkers meeting at a nearby village. The next morning, I prayed for them in three groups and they fell down in tears. In the afternoon, I prayed for healing and many were healed. We continued the next morning. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke in tongue loudly. Later the Spirit of joy came, and I anointed them in groups. The Holy Spirit moved mightily and they were all in great laughter.
