December Mission Trip to Southeastern China

In early December, I made a two-week mission trip to Zhejiang, Fujian, Guangdong, and Hainan provinces in China. We held meetings at 16 places and ministered to nearly 3,000 people. I had to minister at different places daily and the transportation was convenient by high-speed trains and planes. The move of the Holy Spirit was not as strong as before. Not much tears of repentance were there as people often fell quietly.

I first arrived at a city in Zhejiang at night and preached at the coworker meeting the next morning. They knelt down in response to the sermon with tears of repentance. When I laid hands on them, they all fell down in tears. In the afternoon, they were filled with Holy Spirit in holy laughter. I then prayed for the sick on the platform and anointed the leaders. The place was packed in the evening when I prayed for the deliverance. I went to the coworker meeting at nearby town the next morning. Many packed the meeting hall with some elderly people. After preaching, I prayed for them in two groups and they fell in tears. In the afternoon, I first prayed for the sick on platform, and then for the rest. When people received the anointing in the evening, they fell from the front to the back in great joy. Then I went to the Bible training school on the Spirit Mountain with young students. After preaching in the next morning, I prayed for them and they fell down weeping. Later I prayed for their deliverance and the Holy Spirit moved mightily. In the afternoon, I led them in dancing to praise God. Many were filled with great joy after I laid hand on them. I then took the train to the next city.

In the next morning, we held the meeting in a nearby town. Many were laborers from Henan and Anhui provinces. After preaching, I prayed for people and they fell down quietly for a long time. In the afternoon, I prayed for the sick and then anointed them with joy. Then we went to a church in the city. Many came for the evening meeting and packed the place. After preaching, I prayed for the sick on the platform, and then laid hands on people. They all fell quietly for a long time. Lastly I anointed the young people and coworkers. In the next morning, I preached at a church in the city center and the place was packed. After communion, I prayed for people and many fell in tears. The Holy Spirit moved strongly. In the afternoon, I prayed for them with the anointing, and then took the train to the next city.

In the next morning, we held the meeting in a house with people from different churches. After preaching, I prayed for people and they all fell quietly. In the afternoon, I prayed for them again to receive the Holy Spirit. Many began to speak in tongues and some were in holy laughter. Afterwards, I took the train back to the first city. In the next afternoon, many packed the meeting place. After preaching, I laid hands on people and they fell all over the place. In the evening, many were filled with the Holy Spirit. Lastly I anointed their coworkers on the platform and they were filled with great joy.

In the next morning, I took the train to a city in Fujian. We held the meeting at a seaside church with coworkers from various areas. After preaching, I prayed for them and they all fell quietly. In the afternoon, many were filled with the Holy Spirit in holy laughter. We went to a Three-Self church in another city for the evening meeting. After preaching, I prayed for all the sick and they fell down quietly. The next morning, we went to a city in the mountain area. After preaching at a church, I prayed for the people and they fell quietly. In the afternoon, I prayed for them to receive anointing. Then I took the train to the next city. The next evening, I preached at a church and then prayed for the people. They all fell down quietly and some sisters were moved to tears.

The next morning, I took a plane to a city in Guangdong. We held the coworker meeting at a hotel with most young people. After preaching in the afternoon, I laid hands on them and they fell down quietly, except several in weeping strongly. After preaching in the evening, I prayed for the marriage of all singles. In the next morning, I took the bus to the next city. We met at a church in an office building. After preaching, I prayed for people and they all fell down. Some received the deliverance in tears. In the afternoon, I prayed for them again and they fell down quietly for a long time. Afterwards, I took the plane to a city in Hainan.

In the next afternoon, we held the meeting at a church with coworkers from various house churches. After preaching, I prayed for people and they fell all over the place. Later I danced with all my might for the deliverance of a demon-possessed sister. In the evening, people responded to my preaching in tears. Later when I prayed for the sick, one person came out of wheelchair and another could walk without crutches. I then prayed for all the people and I was totally soaked in sweat because the place was so packed. When I received news about police coming the next morning, I left at once. It was the neighbor who informed the police because of the noise. I waited until it was all clear, then I returned to preach about unity. People embraced one another in response to the message, including the leaders, and they fell down in weeping all over the place. The Holy Spirit moved mightily. The coworkers then took turns to receive anointing. They fell row by row and were filled with the Holy Spirit. Afterwards, we took the bus to the next city. We met at the church in the evening. After preaching, I gave an alter call of repentance. I then took turns to pray for all the people and they fell down quietly.
