

TABERNACLE OF DAVID MINISTRIES, INTERNATIONAL NEWS

October Mission Trip to Northwest China

In October, I made a two-week mission trip to Xinjiang, Shaanxi, Henan, Shanxi provinces in Northwest China. We held meetings in 16 places and ministered to over 2,600 people. The focus of this trip was in the cities. Despite the limitation in meeting facilities, the Holy Spirit moved mightily among the city dwellers, especially the businessmen. They face all kinds of pressure in life and are in need of deliverance. They also need healings for many sicknesses as well as for the difficult issues in personal relationship. In the recent years, China has experience great economical advance but it comes with many problems. Material riches could never satisfy the emptiness in people's hearts. Corruption, fornication and other crimes are rampant. Environmental pollution has brought serious health problems. Only the Gospel of Jesus Christ can remove all the sins and improve overall morality of the society. In the past 20 years, we have been mainly focused our ministry in the countryside, but recently more extended to the major cities in China.

I first arrived at night at a major city in Xinjiang. Due to the safety concerns, we only arranged a small meeting with the coworkers from various places. The next morning, we went to the meeting place in the countryside. After preaching, I prayed for them in groups and many fell in tears. I taught the Bible in the afternoon, and then prayed for blessings and healings. In the evening, we went to a house meeting in the city, with mainly businesswomen. I prayed for them after preaching, and many fell in weeping and received deliverance. The next morning, we met again with coworkers. After preaching, I prayed for them and the brothers were filled with joy. In the afternoon, the sisters were filled greatly in laughter. Lastly, I prayed for the young coworker team and they were on fire of the Holy Spirit.

The next day I took a flight to a city in Shaanxi, and then transferred by car to another city at midnight. The next morning, we had a coworker meeting at the prayer mountain. As I led the worship, the presence of God manifested. After preaching, I first laid hands on the worship team and many fell in tears. In the afternoon, I first prayed for the ministers and they all fell down quietly. The next afternoon, I first arrived at their church for a Q&A session with their seminary students. We then proceeded to another church for the special meeting. It was packed with hundreds of people. I preached under the anointing and then gave an alter call. People all rushed to the front and it was chaotic. Later I prayed for them in groups and they all fell down quietly. In the evening, we had a healing crusade and it was overflowed to the outside. After preaching, I prayed for the cancer patients on the platform, and then ministered to all the sick. A wheelchair-bound sister was carried up to receive prayer and then able to walk. Shouts of celebration erupted to praise God. Many with crutches also could walk on their own. Afterward, we travelled back to a city after midnight.

We arranged a meeting at an office the next evening, with mainly businessmen. I preached on topic of the Holy Spirit and answered some questions. To my surprise, the Holy Spirit moved strongly and many fell in weeping. I realized how much they need the work of the Holy Spirit in the city. The next morning, we had a coworker meeting at a big factory. When I preached, it was quite distracting because of the echo and the noise. But we had plenty of space to pray for everyone at one time. Many were in tears and filled with the Holy Spirit. In the afternoon, I first prayed for the young people, and then they were filled with great joy.

We then took the high-speed rail to a city in Henan. The next morning, we met inside a large house in the mountain area. After preaching under the anointing, I prayed for people in groups and many fell in tears. The Spirit of joy came in the afternoon. I first handpicked several sisters and they all fell in great laughter. Then I anointed the people with joy in groups. The next morning, we met at a large courtyard on the hill. It was packed with people from the city. When I gave the alter call after preaching, they all rushed forward. I first prayed for those already in tears. Then I laid hands on several people and suddenly they all fell down at once. After preaching in the afternoon, I led them danced around me together in a circle to praise God. When we shouted hallelujah, they all fell down at once and were greatly filled with joy. I then anointed them with joy in groups. Afterward, we went to a remote village. The next morning, we met at the same old house and it was packed with coworkers. I taught the Bible and then prayed for them in groups. Many fell down in tears. The Spirit of joy came in the afternoon, and I anointed them with joy in groups.

We then took the high-speed train back to a city in Shaanxi. We held a coworker meeting in the suburb the next morning. After preaching, I prayed for them in groups and they fell down in tears. I also prayed for healings and later they were filled with joy. In the afternoon, we went back to the city and met inside an office. After preaching, I prayed for people in groups and many wept strongly in the presence of God. We met at an apartment the next morning for Sunday service, with mainly young students. After preaching, I prayed for them and many fell in tears. The afternoon meeting was in an office building, with mainly white-collar workers. After preaching, I prayed for them and many sisters fell in tears.

I then took a flight back to a major city. The next afternoon, we met at a house church in a residential area. After preaching, I prayed for people and many fell down in tears. We then travelled by a minivan to a town in Shanxi at midnight. The next morning, we met in the nearby village with many coworkers came from various places and packed the room. It has been many years since last time I ministered in this area. After preaching, I first prayed for those who were touched by the Holy Spirit and they fell down in weeping. After preaching at noon, the Spirit of joy came and I prayed for them in groups to receive the anointing of joy. We then went to a house church in the city, with many people packed the small house. After preaching, I prayed for them in turns and then went back to the major city past midnight. The next evening, we held a healing meeting at the house church in the city and the room was packed. After preaching, I prayed for all the sick in turns and they all fell down quietly in the presence of God.
