June Mission Trip to Malaysia

In June, I made a mission trip to Malaysia for two weeks. I ministered to over 1,600 people in 5 places. After arriving at Kuala Lumpur, I went to Malacca to minister at Calvary Life Church. My preaching was interpreted in English. When I gave the altar call, many came forth to receive prayers. The following night, I ministered at their branch church in Tangkak. It has been 10 years since my last visit. We met in their new church building and the youth led the worship. After preaching, I gave the altar call and prayed for people. Next evening, I ministered at the Sunday service of their new branch church in Muar. After preaching, I gave the altar call and many responded. When I prayed for them, many fell quietly and several were in tears. Lastly I laid hands on the children and anointed their coworkers.

During the weekdays, one young couple accompanied me to Langkawi Island for a 3-day tour. After coming back to Kuala Lumpur, we held a young adult reunion meeting in a hotel's conference room. We worshiped, I then preached before taking communion together. As I handed out the bread and the cup, many were moved to tears on their knees. Later I laid hands on them to receive the anointing, and prayed for their personal needs. The next evening, I ministered at Glad-Tiding church in Petaling. During worship, I was filled with the Holy Spirit and fell on the floor. After preaching, I laid hands on all the people and some were moved to tears. The next morning, I preached in their Sunday service with Cantonese interpretation. I specially prayed for elderly on the platform. I ministered to the youth in the next service and lastly to the children as well. In the evening, I went with Pastor Wang to visit two unbelievers who attended the meeting and led them to Christ. I also prayed for their deliverance from evil spirit and idol worship.

June Ministry Trip to Honolulu, Hawaii

Later in June, I was invited by New Life International Church to minister in Honolulu, Hawaii, for a weekend of three special meetings. I again stayed at the YWAM facility. After my last ministry there, we heard many good testimonies. Many came to the Lord while others received spiritual renewal and physical healings. More people from other churches came this time and they were hungry for the Lord. The first evening, I preached on the spiritual warfare and led several to Christ. I then laid hands on people and they fell down quietly. The next evening, I preached on faith and prayed for their personal needs. In the last meeting, I preached on Jesus' ministry and ministered in healings. Later I laid hands on the children and anointed the coworkers with great joy. Many did not want to leave after each meeting because the presence of God was there.

July Mission Trip to Northeast China

In July, I made a mission trip to Zhejiang, Heilongjiang, Liaoning, and Shandong in China for two weeks. We held meetings in 13 places and ministered to over 2,600 people.

I first arrived at a city in Zhejiang and held the meeting inside a factory. After preaching, I prayed for young workers and many were weeping. In the evening, they were filled with joy. The next morning, I ministered at a youth summer camp. After preaching, I laid hands on them and they fell down in weeping. Later they became quiet in the presence of God. In the afternoon, I led them in dancing to praise God. Later when they received the anointing, they fell down altogether. Many were filled with joy. The evening prayer meeting was packed with many people. After preaching, I laid hands on all the people in groups. I then rushed to the next town for a healing crusade on the next day. With the packed crowd, I had to pray for people in groups. Many fell down in tears. I prayed for healings in the afternoon. When they received the anointing, they fell down altogether. Lastly, I anointed all the coworkers to be filled with Spirit of joy in holy laughter.

I then went to a city in Heilongjiang to minister at a house church the next day. People listened to my preaching attentively. I laid hands on them in groups and many fell down in tears. Many sick were healed. As I preached again, the Spirit of joy came and they fell down in holy laughter. I then travelled by car to a remote village for the coworker meeting next morning. After preaching, I laid hands on them and many wept strongly. Several fell down without being touched. In the afternoon, they were filled with the Holy Spirit for a long time. I then went to a remote city by car for the coworker meeting next day. After preaching, I laid hands on them. They fell down in weeping strongly in the morning and then were filled with great joy in the afternoon. I then stopped by a summer camp to speak briefly and lay hands on young people. They fell quietly and several wept strongly. The next morning, we went to a nearby village for the coworker meeting. I preached and laid hands on them. They first fell down in tears in the morning and then in great joy in the afternoon. The Holy Spirit moved strongly for a long time. Lastly, they all danced in praising God.

I almost missed the train that night and arrived at a town in Liaoning next morning. After preaching, people rushed forward for prayers. I prayed for them in groups and they fell down in tears. The Spirit of joy came in the afternoon and they fell down in holy laughter. We went to a village the next day with people from various house churches. After preaching, I prayed for them and they fell down quietly. In the evening, they fell from the front to the back as they received the anointing. The next morning, we held the meeting inside a home in the city, with people packed the place. I prayed for them in groups and many fell down in tears. In the afternoon, we moved to the meeting hall. After preaching, I laid hands on them and they fell down in the presence of God for a long time. The next morning, we went to a village with people from nearby house churches. After preaching, I laid hands on coworkers and many fell down in tears. I prayed for healings in the afternoon. A deaf and mute boy was able to hear and speak! We then came back to the city in the evening for a small meeting.

Lastly I went to a city in Shandong for rest and then went to another city to minister at a house church in the evening. After preaching, I prayed for people and they fell down quietly.
